Sarah Leitch elected as new alumni president

By Lucinda Mowry

The alumni student association has a new president.

Sarah Leitch was elected a unanimous general consensus on Oct. 14. Leitch, a student from the College of Arts and Sciences, was elected to the position of president for the year 1995-1996. She was elected to the position of president for the year 1995-1996.

Cafeteria tries to mix value with selection

By Linda Trueman

Students can choose to eat a meal of the day, like lunch, chicken, and coffee at Conestoga. After a while the cost adds up. However, the price of food served in the cafeteria is $2.00. A student can get the upper management of food for $2.00.

Conestoga's food manager, Dave Lange, said it is important to provide students with a good meal. However, the price for food is not always good. Lange said that the price for food is not always good.

Brantford man finds secret to success in Hippy Heaven

By Samantha Craggs

How would you like to be able to take an extra $100,000 a year and use it for your own purposes? That's how Brantford's Hippy Heaven works.

Hippy is the owner of Hippy Heaven, a Brantford-based business specializing in home improvement services (1-800-444-4444).

At 24, Hippy opened Hippy Heaven four months ago and has already implemented profits.

Hippy said in an interview he put the idea for the store from looking outside windows every day and seeing Hippy.

He said he worked as a computer for a few years and was going to buy a house but instead opened a store.

After getting his wheels under a store, Hippy said he used to have to buy materials and work himself to help him.

Hippy said he had to buy materials and work himself to help him. He said he had to buy materials and work himself to help him.

"I just thought a cash register," Hippy said he had to buy materials and work himself to help him.

them get all the money.

Despite his youth, Hippy said he doesn't experience any discrimination.

"All you have to do is keep your head down and your head up," Hippy said.

Hippy said he doesn't have any business partners but he has a few friends who help him. He said he has a few friends who help him.

The campus lounge may look like a place for students to relax, but for Kristina Abbott, it was the place to perform. The comedian, who has been performing for 12 years, said she likes to play off her audience during a show.

"Sometimes it's the content of comedy," she said. "I play to my audience."

Special for a comedian, there was a three-minute interval in the show during which she sang and danced.

"This is a song," she said. "I'm a singer, dancer and comedian."

Singing a song between sets was one of the things Abbott did to keep the audience entertained.
